Celebrating Our Years Together

One and Done!

K.I.S.S.

No mush involved here! We all know what that acronym stands for. Yes, after years of planning two-night events, and seeing our numbers dwindling every five years, the reunion planning committee made the decision to cut back and focus on one event.

The 2014 Survey Monkey results were clear. It's hard to beat a good party at Joe's. We discussed other options, like meeting in fancy new casinos and restaurants around town, but who are we kidding? Battle Ground alums are known for their country roots, so what better place to celebrate than deep in the heart of the country. That said, let's . . .

Saturday, July 27

Potluck.....5:30

at the home of Joe Taylor

10519 NE 314th St. ■ Battle Ground, Washington

RVs and tents are encouraged for an overnight event.

New Digs!

Don't Miss It!

If you think it was a ton of fun at Joe's at the last two reunions, wait 'til you see what's cookin' now! Indoors, outdoors—it's over-the-top. Yep, a new home with a backyard made for the Class of '74, with a fire pit and an outdoor kitchen on an extended covered patio. Joe is welcoming the gang inside for foosball, or try your skills on a vintage shuffleboard table that's a mile long.

There's no excuse! Join us!

The cost is low, the company is good . . . what's the problem? You're right, there isn't one! Register today so we know you're coming and can plan accordingly. And spread the word! The more the merrier.

Bring your spouse, significant other or a guest, along with a side dish, salad or dessert to add to the potluck fare. Appetizers, pulled pork sandwiches, tableware, cups and napkins will be provided.

Cost: $15 per person or $25 per couple

A Special Invitation

Once again, we're inviting members of the BGHS Classes of '73 and '75 to join us. We had a great time connecting with those who attended in 2014 and are looking forward to a repeat performance. If you have friends you'd like to invite, encourage them to register early.
